King Villanueva
Web Developer

👤 Profile

I am Philip Arthur "King" R. Villanueva, 35 from Angono, Rizal. I am happily married with one beautiful daughter. I'm into web and software development with expertise in both front-end and back-end development. Successfully created and deployed numerous websites, primarily catering to the company and its stakeholders or clients.

💼 Employment History

Web Developer at Penbrothers International Inc., Makati City
April 2020 — Present

- Led and developed features that improved conversion and early life retention rate of Asia customers
- Investigated and fixed discrepancies in error logs with exceptional debugging skills and continuous communication with involved multinational teams
- Established and facilitated the standardization of work process which organized and improved team dynamics of a vertical consisting of 3 tech teams.
- Increased technical health score of developers by conducting tech and non tech workshops on advanced JS, CSS, etc.

Web Developer at United Laboratories Inc., Mandaluyong City
January 2013 — March 2020

- Primary developer to develop a project for company brands.
- Supported and maintained web applications across company.
- Established standardization on work process
- Revamped applications for workflow and data-retrieval efficiency
- Played a significant role in developing brand website by consistently delivering high-quality output and maintaining regular communication with external teams.
- Led and assisted other developers in the development of a new project
- Supported and maintained web apps for brand of listings and coordinated with other divisions

Details

Angono Rizal
Philippines
+63919 093 4608
mrkong.villanueva@gmail.com

Links

Portfolio

Skills

Docker

Node.js

PHP

HTML & CSS

MySQL

JavaScript

NodeJs

TypeScript

AWS

Cloud Computing

Git

VueJs

HTML

CI/CD